

Drug Repositioning for Fundamental Diseases

Murrell Barnes Suite, BMA House, Tavistock Square, London, WC1H 9JP

27th February 2015, 1.30—5.30pm

- 1:30 – 2:00 Welcome and Registration
- 2:00 – 2:05 Chair Introduction
- 2:05 – 2:45 Innovative Partnership and Financing Models for Rare Disease Drug Repositioning — Dr Bruce Bloom, Cures Within Reach
- 2:45 – 3:25 Collaborative Drug Repositioning: Case Studies between Universities, SMEs and Charities — Dr Farid Khan, Protein Technologies
- 3:25 – 3:50 Tea and Coffee Break
- 3:50 – 4:30 Repositioning of Small Molecules for Inherited Connective Tissue Diseases — Prof Michael Briggs, Newcastle University
- 4:30 – 5:00 Panel Discussion Session
- 5:00– 5:05 Chair Closing Remarks
- 5:05 – 5:30 Networking

Please contact Flóra Raffai (flora@findacure.org.uk) to register

1-day conference pass: FREE

'There is no better way to advance the proper practice of medicine than to give our minds to the discovery of the usual law of nature by the careful investigation of cases of rarer forms of disease.'

(Dr William Harvey, 1657)

This workshop is sponsored by The Bulldog Trust