

“First Scientific Workshop on Fundamental Diseases”

Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, CB2 3HU

14th March, 1.30—5.30pm

1:30 – 2:00	Welcome and Registration
2:00 – 2:10	Chair Introduction
Session 1
2:10 – 2:50	Historical link between the rare and the common	Prof. Tim Cox, Cambridge
2:50 – 3:30	What does the iconic rare disease alkaptonuria teach us about ageing and age-related joint destruction?	Prof. Jim Gallagher, Liverpool
3:30 – 4:00	Tea and coffee break
Session 2
4:00 – 4:40	Clues to kidney cancer from fundamental diseases	Prof. Eamonn Maher, Cambridge
4:40 – 5:20	Why is carriage of only one type of cystic fibrosis so common: a fundamental frequency?	Dr Anil Mehta, Dundee
5:20 – 5:30	Chair closing remarks

Please contact Flóra Raffai (flora@findacure.org.uk) to register

1-day conference pass: FREE

'There is no better way to advance the proper practice of medicine than to give our minds to the discovery of the usual law of nature by the careful investigation of cases of rarer forms of disease.'

(Dr William Harvey, 1657)

This workshop is sponsored by The Bulldog Trust